

Just Keep Swimming

We are motionless

And preparing in the corals

A shoal of fish

Between the pond and the ocean

It is the moon's hour off

The moon has snuggled down among the waves

The two speak privately together

Awaiting the whirr of fins...

By P7

We celebrated National Poetry Day on the 4th October by writing a poem about Transition. We used imitative writing as a technique.